EXHIBITOR TERMS & CONDITIONS

In these terms and conditions the phrase “organiser” relates to The Tank Museum and the terms “exhibitor” or “exhibitor/trader” relates to the person making this application.

Booking & Payment Terms:

1. Bookings will be made on receipt of the completed application form, supporting documentation and full payment. Please note that the organiser has the right to refuse booking, even when the above is completed. Confirmation of your booking will follow from the organiser.
2. All charges are inclusive of VAT. Payment options are as follows:
 - Cheques made payable to ‘The Tank Museum Ltd’.
 - Credit/Debit Card.
 - BACS on request.

Cash payments are not accepted.

3. A receipt shall be sent to you when payment is received.

Cancellations:

4. Exhibitors/traders are advised to take out cancellation cover. The organiser is not liable for refunds or compensation in regard to the event including cancellation or curtailment for any reason beyond the control of the Organiser.
5. If an exhibitor/trader fails to occupy the space allocated to them by the required time on the day of the event the organiser reserves the right to reallocate the space. No refunds will be given should the exhibitor/trader fail to show up.
6. If the exhibitor chooses to cancel their booking 2 months prior to the event, a full refund will be returned upon request.
7. If the exhibitor chooses to cancel their booking 1 month prior to the event, 50% of their pitch fee will be returned upon request.
8. If the exhibitor chooses to cancel their booking less than 2 weeks prior to the event no refund will be offered.

Space/Pitch:

9. The above terms are based on the original booking for an event. No refund will be offered should you wish to reduce your pitch size.
10. If your pitch requirements change after booking your pitch, this will be subject to availability and no refund will be offered should you no longer be able to attend the event.
11. The space booked and confirmed by the exhibitor/trader must include sufficient room all aspects of your stand, e.g. display units and accessories. If upon inspection the exhibitor/trader is found to have breached this condition they will be asked to remove the articles. Failure to do so will result in the exhibitor/trader being asked to leave the venue.
12. The organiser reserves the right to change the layout and location of the event space without prior notice. The exhibitor/trader adhere to the layout confirmed by the organiser.
13. The exhibitor/trader will have the right to request a pitch within a specific size, but this does not necessarily guarantee the same pitch as in previous years if you are a returning trader/exhibitor.
14. Preference on space location is provided where possible, however this is under the organiser’s discretion and pitch spaces cannot be reserved or guaranteed. We reserve the right to move pitch allocations, regardless of previous discussions if needed.
15. Roving sales by an exhibitor are prohibited, unless previously agreed by the organiser.
16. Sub-letting or sub-contracting of exhibition space is prohibited.
17. Stands and exhibits are expected to be of a high standard. The organiser reserves the right to remove any untidy stands.
18. Exhibitors/traders must man stands at all times during the event opening hours.
19. Access routes should not be obstructed under any circumstance.

Electricity (Inside):

20. Electricity will be available inside the Museum upon request (charged at £5.00 per socket & subject to availability).
21. The organiser will not be providing protective matting or extension leads.
22. Electrical certificate for any electrical appliances is to be available to the event organisers upon request.

Security:

23. Where overnight security is provided, the organiser will advise pre-event. Standard MOD checks are conducted throughout the year, however equipment is left on site at the exhibitors/traders risk. The organiser takes no responsibility for damage or loss to items left on site.
24. The organiser has the right to conduct relevant security checks to items or personnel where deemed appropriate.
25. Camping is not permitted on site, unless advised otherwise by the organiser.

Health and Safety:

26. It is the exhibitors/traders responsibility to comply with all health and safety and fire regulations. Detailed risk assessments are required for all events. Copies should be sent within the application.
27. A minimum of £5,000,000 Public Liability Insurance (including product liability if selling products) is required. A copy of this should be sent in at the time of booking. Please note that copies of these documents must be up to date for the event.
28. The exhibitor/trader is responsible for ensuring that all equipment is safe for the public to view and handle. Any injury obtained from the exhibitor/trader's equipment or products will be the responsibility of the exhibitor/trader and not a liability of the organiser.
29. All structures must adhere to fire regulations and be securely and safely constructed by a competent person. This should be included within the exhibitor/traders risk assessment where appropriate. Any manual handling injuries are the responsibility of the exhibitor/trader.
30. The organiser will provide sufficient first aid cover for visitors on site at the event. If you are approached by a member of the public, that required first aid, please contact the organiser. Where deemed appropriate, as an employer, the exhibitor/trader should ensure basic first aid cover is available for their employees.
31. Emergency procedures must be followed in the event of an emergency. Be aware the Museum is on a Military Base and so an emergency can be called at any time within the site, inclusive of the Garrison. All emergencies should be treated as a matter of urgency.
32. Please advise the organisers immediately if you see anything suspicious. No bags should be left unattended at any time. If you witness this, please advise the organiser or a member of Tank Museum staff. Suspicious activity can come in the form of equipment, but also personnel.
33. Strictly NO DOGS on the site other than registered Assistance Dogs.
34. The organiser will monitor general health and safety for the duration of the event. The organiser conducts checks were deemed appropriate and ensure all terms and conditions within this document are being adhered to. Failure to comply could result in being asked to leave the site.

Products:

35. The exhibitor/trader is responsible for all equipment brought onto site and for ensuring that all insurances are obtained and contractual obligations met.

Vehicle Movement:

36. Parking areas will be advised pre-event.
37. Vehicles are not to be parked in the way of any fire exit, hangar doors, or to block any access gates, roads or public walkways. Any vehicle found to be parked in an out of bounds area will be asked to move. Failure to move the vehicle may result in it being towed away.
38. Exhibitors/traders are prohibited from parking in the disabled car park and public car park and must move their vehicles to the Traders car park as instructed.

THE TANK MUSEUM

39. All vehicle registration numbers should be supplied to the organiser prior to the event date. This includes any vehicles within the designated parking area.
40. When on site for an event, please comply with a 5mph speed limit, with hazard lights on. If this is not required for an event it will be advised.

Litter:

41. Exhibitors/traders must leave their site in the condition they found it in. Should any damage be made, the organiser will charge to repair cost to the exhibitor/trader.
42. Please do not leave food waste behind, it is the traders responsibility to take this away as the organisers are not responsible for clearing this up.
43. Where a refuse point is available, this will be advised by the organiser. Otherwise, all litter should be taken with you post-event.
44. Failure to comply with any of the above could result in a penalty clean up fee and not being invited back to trade at the museum in the future.

Personal conduct:

45. The exhibitor/trader is responsible for any damage to museum property and/or other supplier's equipment on site. Taking full responsibility for all measures required to rectify the situation.
46. Whilst on the Museum site, all persons are to conduct themselves in a professional and courteous manner and must not give offence to others.
47. No persons are allowed on any of the vehicles or displays in the Museum and should not attach any item to any of the displays or exhibitions. Failure to adhere to this may result in them being asked to leave the site.
48. The organiser holds a no tolerance policy to any anti-social behaviour directed towards Tank Museum staff. This behaviour may result in you being asked to leave the site and/or being unable to trade with us in the future.

General Site Conditions:

49. The exhibitor/trader has the same access as visitors, unless advised otherwise pre-event.
50. Any barriers placed in or around the event/function by the organiser must not be moved.
51. During outdoor events, you may be located on different surface areas, inclusive of grass, gravel and concrete. Please consider equipment required for these different areas. For example you will require weights for marquees on concrete as opposed to pins or ground anchors.
52. Photographs of models may be taken for future promotional purposes, if you would prefer your collection(s) to not feature in any Tank Museum property, please advise below.

I agree to abide and be bound to these Terms and Conditions issued by the Tank Museum.
